GRAND JURY MAKES ITS PRESENTMENT

REPORTS CONVICT CAMP IN GOOD SHAPE AND MEN WELL TREATED

HAVE WORKED

Various Committees of the Tribunal Have Not Been Negligent.

Late Wednesday afternoon the grand jury made its presentment to the court. The presentment is a very lengthy one and shows that the various committees have been hard at work. They commend the work of the convicts camps and report that they find the camps in good condition and the convicts well treated. Other committees make favorable reports.

Following is the presentment in full:

To Hon. Thomas S. Sease, Presiding Judge of the Tenth Judicial Circuit at Anderson, S. C.

The grand jury of Anderson county, hereby submit their second general presentment.

We have passed upon all the bills handed to us.

The committees appointed at previous term of court made their reports all of which were approved and adopted.

The committee on the county home reported that they had visited the home and found it well kept, in a clean condition and the inmates well satisfied with their treatment.

They also found the crops in good condition. The committee reported a new cook room is needed as the old one is inadequate and inconvenient. We therefore recommend that the county commissioners make said addition to the buildings.

The committee on convicts and chain gang report that they found the camp in good condition, the mules well cared for and the convicts humanely treated.

The committee on the public schools of the county, makes a very encouraging report, to which all of the members can subscribe of their own observation and knowledge; that is that there is a general increase of interest throughout the county in the cause of education, and the teachers in the public school as a general rule are doing good work. The schools are running longer than formerly. In most instances eight months during the year. The people of the various communities have built better and more commodious school houses and equipped them for more efficient teaching, and are demanding the best teachers that they can procure.

Considering the continued rains in the earlier part of this year, we have found the public roads of the county in reasonably good condition.

The committee on offices and officers will not make their report at this term, as they have not yet examined the books and accounts of the county officers. While they do not apprehend anything wrong on the part of any county officer, it is their intention to procure some skilled accountant to assist them in this work.

They report that the county auditor needs more office room, and recommend that the county commissioners provide a larger room for his office if it is practicable to do so.

We are informed that there is now confined in the county jail a woman who is afflicted with pellagra and is insane awaiting orders to be conveyed to the state hospital for the insane, and that the jailor has no place in the jail where he can keep her isolated from the other prisoners.

We recommend that the county commissioners make provisions to isolate all such cases, and suggest that the county pest house be used until they are sent to the state hospital for the insane.

We desire to express our appreciation to your honor, to the solicitor, and to all the officers of the court for the courtesies shown us during the term.

Respectfully submitted,
JAS. R. ANDERSON, Foreman.

At Triangle Church.
There will be preaching at Triangle church at four o'clock Sunday afternoon, May 16th, instead of at the usual morning service at 11 o'clock.

A Hoosier Cabinet on the regular terms is a bargain. "White Beauty" is the most complete Hoosier ever built. On this special plan, this "White Beauty" sale is literally a chance of a lifetime. And now, for the last time, you can make this saving and have "White Beauty" delivered to your home by

Paying Only $1
The balance is only $1 weekly. No extra fees. No interest. Just the cash price.

Isn't This Common Sense?
If "White Beauty" will save you miles of steps; if it will save you time and energy; if it will put your whole kitchen at your fingers' ends, and enable you to get through more quickly and keep your kitchen always in order, isn't it common sense to come down tomorrow and examine this wonderful cabinet while you can still get these liberal terms? It won't take you five minutes to decide. You couldn't spend five minutes more profitably.

A Few of 17 Features Exclusive in the Hoosier
The new patented shaker flour sifter shakes flour through instead of grinding it through. It is the most important improvement in the entire Hoosier Cabinet. The simple book-keeping system puts an end to troubles with the market man. The cook-book holder keeps your book open at the level of your eye. The Food-Guide answers the eternal problem, "What shall I cook for dinner?" The pencil holder keeps your pencil always handy. There is a special compartment for string, and a sliding metal shelf for cake. The list might cover this page, and still not complete the reasons why you want a Hoosier Cabinet.

You Want It Because It Will Last a Lifetime
No article ever put into a kitchen has been better built than the Hoosier. More than twelve hundred parts go into every cabinet. Every joint is perfectly finished and braced. The outside finish is especially made to stand kitchen wear. A Hoosier Cabinet will last you as long as you live.

You Want It Because It Is So Low in Price
You can't measure the value of an article that will save you miles of steps every day, but the present low price of the Hoosier measured against any standard known, makes it the greatest furniture bargain ever sold.

Decide Tonight to Invest $1 Tomorrow! Monday Will Be Too Late

This is your last opportunity to get this Hoosier Cabinet on these remarkable terms. Other women who have postponed are making their decision now. Tomorrow is the final day—positively the last. Come in early, because there are just a few "White Beauties" left.

This May Bride Was Married by an Alderman.

Dear Cousin Sue: Yesterday was the day of days! George has been suddenly ordered to Buenos Aires; we sail tomorrow. As soon as he got the news we hurried down to the city clerk's office for the license. "We won't have time for a big wedding," said he, so let's be married right here."
"What now?" I exclaimed.
In a moment he had found an alderman and in another moment I was going through the ceremony in a flash, and now I am a bride without the gorgeous wedding I planned. But I am not a bride without the wedding gown! Here it is, the gown that waited at home while the bride stowed. Because there'll be no grand wedding now, I send you the picture of it which I had taken today.
It is a gown after my own heart because it is so airy, yet has such wedding dignity. The under dress is traditional satin in bridal white—chambrase, to be sure, the stuff that clings so lovingly to the bride's folds, a la grandmother. A train! today, instead of standing in se, indeed, it's gaily weighted with crystal bead embroidery. A train's part of wedding finery, though many frocks don't have 'em this year. The overdress is a dream. The low waist-line and the full sleeves are very new and become me because I'm slender.

You will recognize the tunic as the flounce of real lace mother and grandmother wore as brides. Madame has set it off for me with two four-inch folds of chambrase to match the low folded giraffe. A touch of the old laces finishes neck and sleeves. My bodice has a softness, a photograph can hardly show. Cut on the same simple lines as the underdress, it is of white chieon cloth all rayed and sprayed with white crystal beads.
Wedding veils won't seem fussy to you any more. Sue, when you see how different mine is. It was designed especially to become me. My hair is low and simple to suit George and is clasped with an orange bud wreath that holds the veil of white tulle that puffs partly above and floats to the end of the chambrase train. Your bride has veered from the old time brightness in the collarless neck. The bridest brides follow this mode now and I like it best. Severe little slippers of chambrase to match the gown, white silk hose—the bride is complete as you were to have seen her at the grand wedding.
Good bye, dear Sue. While I am honeymooning beyond the tropics, console yourself with this picture and be fact that the wedding you missed would have been adorned with Madame's newest bridal creation.
